

Thank you for supporting the Student Engagement Center!

How is Campus Cupboard used?

The Campus Cupboard supports students by providing free access to food, hygiene items, and basic necessities, helping reduce food insecurity and financial stress. Students can visit regularly to supplement groceries, grab essentials, and access support in a welcoming, judgment-free space.

Thank you for donating thoughtfully and helping support the KU community

- 2024-2025
  - Unique Users: 985
  - Total Visits: 6,802
  - Average visits a month: 680
  - Items Distributed: 63,917

Campus Cupboard Donations

The Campus Cupboard accepts unopened and unexpired shelf-stable food items, including:

- Snacks
- Beans and lentils
- Rice
- Canned goods
- Pasta
- Peanut butter

Household items:

- laundry detergent
- toilet paper
- paper towels

Hygiene products:

- Shampoo
- Conditioner
- Soap
- Period products

Kitchen items:

- water bottles
- can openers
- reusable bags
- cooking utensils

All items must be unused and in good condition.

Community Closet Donations

The Community Closet accepts clean, gently used:

- Clothing
- Shoes
- Accessories
- Unopened and unexpired makeup

We Cannot Accept

- Clothing with stains, rips, or tears
- Graphic tees
- Sports or college apparel other than KU